FAIR HOUSING OFFICE

Ms. Roman reported that the Norwalk Fair Housing Office was invited to participate in the Coalition to End Homelessness 23rd Annual Training Institute on a panel discussing local fair housing and housing equity efforts.

Ms. Roman also shared that she recently attended CHRO fair housing training and discussed recent Connecticut fair housing protections, including protections related to Clean Slate laws, victims of sexual assault, and victims of trafficking.

COMMISSION DISCUSSION: Commissioners discussed the possibility of utilizing volunteers or part-time support to assist with office intake calls and administrative tasks as office activity continues to increase.

Commissioners discussed the importance of the Norwalk Fair Housing consent decree and the distinction between Fair Housing and Fair Rent functions.

Commissioners commended Ms. Roman for her work during her first year as Fair Housing Officer and discussed the continued growth and visibility of the office within the community.

Commissioners reminded attendees of the upcoming NAACP Housing Summit scheduled for June 6, 2026.
