Continued discussion on Board of Ethics’ draft slides for power point presentation regarding education and training programs.

Mr. Candela summarized that the Board has completed edits of slides for the following sections of the Code of Ethics:

32-1 Title; Administration

Previously discussed – Agreed On

32-2 Declaration of Policy

Previously discussed – Agreed On

32-3 Definitions – Previously Discussed -Agreed On

Ms. Agudown noted there was discussion at a charter revision meeting regarding the code of ethics to expand scope to be all inclusive, examples of unwanted behavior, and expansion of who needs to take the training. Mr. Candela read the “Employee” definition. The consensus was it incorporates all the people employed and people employed by contract. The commission will wait to see what the Charter Revision comes up with.

32.7 Prohibited Use of Influence and Information

Previously discussed – Agreed On

32.8 Prohibited Gifts

Previously discussed – Agreed On

32.9 Specific Violations

Previously discussed with recommendations. – Revisit

- This section of the Code of Ethics discusses specific violations. If you have any questions about a specific violation, please see Section 32-9 of the Code of Ethics.

Discussion took place to add examples by Ms. Agudow & Ms. Toni. Ms. Torrano noted this is a power point presentation representing an overview with the expectation of a more in-depth training which would include examples and case studies. Mr. Candela summarized the committee revamped the entire code and the citizens guide as part of the concern was to make sure the people who work, elected, or appointed know the Code of Ethics exists; and they have a general idea of what it is about. The power point presentation is a good starting point.

Mr. Candela will prepare a list of what sections we have an agreement on and what sections we do not.

32.10 – Negotiation of Future Employment

Previously Discussed – Agreed On

32.11 – Subsequent Employment

Previously Discussed – Agreed On

32-16 – Incurring of Costs by Board of Ethics; Staff

Previously Discussed – Agreed On

Mr. Church noted previous feedback regarding below, we have previously requested an annual appropriation and there will be no line item but a budget on an as needed basis. It was noted that the word shall is consistent with the Board of Ethics Document.

- The Board of Ethics shall seek an annual appropriation to be used to cover such costs during the year and may also seek increased appropriations, if necessary to carry out its responsibilities.

32-17 – Representation of Respondent by the City
Previously Discussed – Agreed On

32-18 – Effective Date – Agreed On previously.

32-5 – Prohibited Representation – Agreed On
Discussion took place to capitalize definitional terms.

32-6 – Prohibited use of City Property and Facilities – Agreed on
Discussion took place to capitalize definitional terms.

*Mr. Candela asked committee members to voice if in favor of making changes regarding definitional terms.

* UNANIMOUS ALL IN FAVOR

32-12 - Organization and Duties of the Board of Ethics – Ethics Complaint Procedure – In Review
Mr. Candela recommended adding flow charts to the back of the power point presentation prepared by Kara.

Public

- If Probable Cause is found by the Investigating Panel, Three Member Hearing Board is formed
- Public Hearing(s) are held
- Hearing Board issues a written memorandum of decision
- If an Ethics violation is found, a determination of violation is issued in writing and the matter is referred for further action
- If an Ethics violation is not found, the case is dismissed

Ethics Complaint Process

1. City of Norwalk's Code of Ethics Complaint Process

First Step: Ethics Board Reviews Complaint

- Board of Ethics reviews complaint to determine whether it should be accepted.
- If the Board rejects the complaint, it must do so in writing.
- Reasons to reject a complaint, include but are not limited to:
 - Number of complaints filed and pending by Complainant;
 - The scope of the complaint;
 - The nature, content, language and/or subject matter of the complaint;
 - The nature, content, language or subject matter of other written communications to the Board; or
 - A pattern of conduct resulting in an abuse of process or interference with the Board.

Rejection of the Complaint

- A Complaint must be:
 - In good faith;
 - Truthful; and
 - Not intended to harass the Respondent.
- If a Complaint is found to be in bad faith, untruthful or vexatious, the Board may:
 - Provide appropriate relief, commensurate with the conduct; and/or
 - Order that the Board of Ethics need not accept complaints from the Complainant for a designated period of time.

Second Step: Investigating Panel

- Upon receipt of Complaint
 - Board of Ethics meets at next, regularly scheduled meeting;
 - Board reviews complaint;
 - If complaint is accepted, Investigating Panel is appointed within 21 days; and
 - Complainant and Respondent notified within 10 days after Investigating Panel is formed.

Investigating Panel– Confidentiality

- Investigating Panel proceedings are confidential.
 - Breach of confidentiality can be direct or indirect.
 - Breach of confidentiality may result in dismissal of complaint.
 - Board of Ethics may ban Complainant from filing future complaints due to breach of confidentiality.

Investigating Panel Process

- Investigating Panel determines whether there is Probable Cause that Respondent has violated the Code.
- Investigating Panel may delete, defer, reject or expand any part of the complaint.
- Investigating Panel may receive oral or written testimony from Complainant, Respondent, and witnesses, may retain legal counsel and investigators.
- Investigating Panel must complete investigation and decide initial complaint within 60 days.

Decision by Investigating Panel

- Two outcomes:
 - No Probable Cause = dismissal of complaint
 - Probable Cause = referral to Hearing Board
- Finding of No Probable Cause
 - Complaint dismissed.
 - Board of Ethics notified of dismissal with a copy dismissal sent to Respondent and Complainant.
- Finding of Probable Cause:
 - Two (2) affirmative votes required.
 - Written report to Board of Ethics stating the basis for the finding.
 - Board of Ethics appoints a Hearing Board within 45 days of written report.

Third Step: Hearing Board

- Investigating Panel presents all evidence to Hearing Board.
- Hearing Board notifies Respondent and Complainant within 10 days of receipt of report by Investigating Panel of the hearing process.
- All hearings are Public hearings and are not confidential.
- Public has a right to access the hearings.

Public Hearing Process

- The Investigating Panel presents the Complaint to the Hearing Board on behalf of Complainant.
- Investigating Panel and Respondent rights:
 - To be represented by counsel;
 - To present relevant oral or written evidence; and
 - To exam and cross-examine witnesses; and
 - To have the hearing conducted in such a manner as to afford both parties due process under Federal, State, and local law.
- Subpoenas may be issued by Hearing Board for both witnesses and records/documents.

Public Hearing Process

- Evidence and Burden of Proof
 - A violation of the Code must be proven by Clear and Convincing Evidence
 - Investigating Panel has the burden of proving the complaint.
 - A 2/3rd vote of the Hearing Panel is required to make a finding of a violation of the Code of Ethics.
- Extensions of time within the discretion of the Hearing Board.

Decision by the Hearing Board

- The decision of the Hearing Board must be rendered within 120 days of appointment.
- Within 30 days after rendering a decision, the Hearing Board must state its findings of fact and conclusions of law in a written Memorandum of Decision.
- Memorandum of Decision is:
 - Filed with the Mayor, City Clerk, Corporation Counsel;
 - May be filed with any other Officer, as appropriate; and
 - Provided to the Complainant and Respondent.
- Penalties for violation of the Ethics Code are set forth in section 32-13.

Miscellaneous Provisions

- Stipulations of Parties and Settlement
 - The Respondent may enter into a settlement with the Board of Ethics, Investigating Panel or Hearing Board at any time.
- Educational Programs
 - The Board shall hold or sponsor at least one educational program annually.
 - The Board of Ethics has a Citizen's Guide available to the public and other interested parties.
