OLD BUSINESS

Atty. Candela said that he had attended the Ordinance Committee meeting and said that the Committee had not voted to send Sections 32-16 and 32-17 to the Common Council. He gave a summary of the concerns and discussion that occurred at the meeting. Mr. Corsello had concerns about 32-16 and stated that Sections A and B were redundant. Mr. Hempstead and Mr. Corsello disagreed over the wording in 32-17 regarding whether the Council would be responsible for legal costs if someone is accused of an ethics violation and has to hire legal counsel.

The discussion moved to the indemnification clause. Atty. Candela said that if a person who was serving on a Commission was accused of an ethics violation, they would have to retain their own attorney. The Board Members then discussed the definition of reasonable fees.

Atty. Candela reminded everyone that the election was coming up and that at least five members of the incoming Ordinance Committee will be new Council Members.

* MS. MURPHY MOVED TO APPROVE THE PROPOSED CHANGES TO SECTION 32-17 AS DISCUSSED.

* MS. TORRANO SECONDED.

* THE MOTION PASSED UNANIMOUSLY.

The discussion then moved to the wording of Section 32-16. Ms. Torrano pointed out that businesses have mandatory ethics training. Atty. Candela said that there had been various ethics programs presented and he had worked with the Director of Health and the Personnel and Human Resources Director regarding the training. Atty. Candela said that he had a conversation with a BOE employee who had been unaware of the Ethics training. He said that he had contacted Dr. Adamowski and the other BOE administrators about this.

Ms. Murphy said that there had been a member of the public that had repeatedly attended the Ordinance Committee and requested Training.

Atty. Candela said that there had been mandatory training on sexual harassment and cyber security for the staff.

Ms. Torrano had several questions about which department would be responsible for the training. It was pointed out that if someone had ethics charges lodged against them, having documentation on mandatory training could be critical. Atty. Candela said that CCM had come to Norwalk and held a 3 hour seminary on Norwalk's Ethics Code in the past. He pointed out that the Personnel Department would have a vested interest in seeing that the staff and appointed officials had training. Discussion followed.

Atty. Candela said that he would email everyone copies of the revisions for Section 32-16 and if anyone had suggestions, they should use the "Reply All" function on the email. Mr. Church said that if there were two or three Board Members who wished to discuss a topic, he would suggest the items be held over to the January meeting.

Mr. Williams asked what happened with Sections 32-4; 32-8 and 32-12 that were listed under New Items on the Ordinance Committee agenda. Atty. Candela said that it was the last meeting for the Ordinance Committee and they chose not to address those Sections at that time. He reminded every one that Sections 32-4; 32-8 and 32-12 had not gone to public hearing. Discussion followed about bringing Sections 32-17 and 32-16 back before the newly elected Ordinance Committee first and then bringing the last three items to the Committee.

* MS. MURPHY MOVED TO APPROVE SECTION 32-17 AS DISCUSSED AND AMENDED.

* MS. TORRANO SECONDED.

* THE MOTION PASSED UNANIMOUSLY.

There was no vote on Section 32-16 at this time. Atty. Candela announced that the next Ordinance meeting is scheduled for December 17th.

NEW BUSINESS

Discuss and vote on the Board of Ethics' 2020 schedule.

The Board Members then reviewed the proposed meeting dates as listed on the last age of the information packet.

* MR. KOLESZAR MOVED TO APPROVE THE BOARD OF ETHICS' 2020 SCHEDULE AS PRESENTED.

* MS. MURPHY SECONDED.

* THE MOTION PASSED UNANIMOUSLY.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

There was no need for an Executive Session at this time.

ADJOURNMENT

* MS. TORRANO MOVED TO ADJOURN.

* MS. MURPHY SECONDED.

* THE MOTION PASSED UNANIMOUSLY.

The meeting adjourned at 8:16 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

The powers and duties of the Board of Ethics shall include rendering advisory opinions, investigation of complaints, hearings on complaints, notification of to the Mayor, City Clerk, Corporation Counsel and any other public Officer as it deems appropriate of its memorandum of decision on any complaint, annual reports to the Mayor, Common Council, and Corporation Counsel on its activities and recommendations, and annual educational programs on the Code of Ethics for municipal Officers, Employees, and agencies on the Code of Ethics. [KM6] Further, the Board of Ethics shall promote a public culture and operating environment of high ethical standards throughout the City of Norwalk, by education, and informing and encouraging City officials, Employees, residents and vendors of the City of Norwalk to become aware of the Code of Ethics, and to ensure that their public actions and activities are in compliance with the Norwalk Code of Ethics. and high ethical standards. [KM7]

~~Further, the Board of Ethics shall promote a public culture and operating environment of high ethical standards throughout the City of Norwalk, by education, and informing and encouraging City officials, Employees, residents and vendors of the City of Norwalk to become aware of the Code of Ethics, and to ensure that their public actions and activities are in compliance with the Norwalk Code of Ethics. and high ethical standards. [KM8]~~

(1) Advisory opinions. The Board, when requested to do so in writing by any officerOfficer, employeeEmployee, aAgency, or member of the public, or upon its own motion, may render advisory opinions concerning officerOfficers and employeeEmployees and other issues with respect to this Code of Ethics. Such advisory opinion shall be binding on the Board, until amended or revoked, and reliance on a controlling advisory opinion in good faith is an absolute defense in any action or proceedings brought under the provisions of this Code of Ethics. Within 120 days of valid receipt of the request, the Board shall render its advisory opinion, or act not to consider such request, and shall file such opinion or action The Board shall file said advisory opinion with the office of the City Clerk, and such advisory opinions shall be available to the public. The advisory opinion so filed may contain such deletions as may be necessary to prevent disclosure of the identity of the officerOfficer or employeeEmployee involved, if agreed to by both the individual involved and the Board.

(2) Probable cause hearings and subsequent procedures.

(a) Filing of the complaint, notification and amendment.

Any Person, including a member of the Board of Ethics, may submit a written complaint, in a form prescribed by the Board of Ethics and signed under penalty of false statement, alleging a violation of this Code of Ethics by an Officer or Employee or an Individual who was an Officer or Employee within the preceding year. The complaint shall contain the specific act or acts which allegedly constitute the violation.

(2) Review of complaint

Upon receipt of a complaint, the Board of Ethics shall review the complaint and determine whether it warrants acceptance. If the Board of Ethics determines that acceptance is not warranted by a majority of the members present at the meeting, then it shall notify the complainant that it has refused to accept the complaint without establishing an Investigating Panel. If the Board of Ethics refuses to accept a complaint, it shall issue a written explanation of the reasons for such rejection.

The Board of Ethics may refuse to accept a complaint. The conduct which the Board of Ethics relies on to make such a decision shall include, but not be limited to: (a) the number of complaints filed and the total number of pending complaints by the Complainant; (b) the scope of the complaint; (c) the nature, content, language or subject matter of the complaint; (d) the nature, content, language or subject matter of other oral and written communications to the Board of Ethics from the complainant; and (e) a pattern of conduct that amounts to an abuse of the ethics complaint process or an interference with the operations of the Board of Ethics.

Upon the rejection of a complaint, if the Board of Ethics makes a finding that the complaint was vexatious and brought in bad faith it may provide appropriate relief commensurate with the conduct, including but not limited to, an order that the Board of Ethics need not accept future complaints from the filer for a specified period of time.

(3) Appointment of Investigating Panel

Upon receipt of said complaint by the Board of Ethics members and subject to 32-12(e)(1)(a), an Investigating Panel will be appointed within 21 days after the next regularly scheduled Board of Ethics meeting. The members of the Investigating Panel shall not be Officers or Employees from the Agency at which the Individual(s) alleged to be involved in the facts of the complaint currently serves or formerly served within one year as Officers or Employees. The Investigating Panel members may delete, defer or reject any part of a complaint that does not conform to the requirements specified by the Board of Ethics. If any member of the Board of Ethics initiates or is involved in a complaint, he or she will recuse himself or herself from the Board of Ethics for the purposes of that complaint, including the appointment of the Investigating Panel and any Hearing Board, and an alternate of the Board shall serve in his or her place as to all further proceedings on that complaint.

(b) Investigation of Complaint, Notification of Parties, Investigating Panel

(1) Notification of Parties. The Board of Ethics shall notify, by registered or certified mail, or by personal service by a Statea State Marshal sheriff, constable or indifferent pPerson, any Respondent(s) respondent-against whom a complaint is filed not later than 10 business days after the Investigating Panel investigating-panelis formed. A copy of such complaint, the name of the Complainant(s) complainant(s)-and any subsequent changes to the complaint shall accompany such notice. The Board shall also notify the eComplainant in writing of its receipt of such complaint not later than 10 business days after the Investigating Panel investigating-panel is formed.

(2) Expansion of Complaint by Investigating Panel. Subsequent to the filing of the original complaint, the Investigating Panel investigating-panel or the Board of Ethics may, at its discretion, supplement expand any complaint filed with the Board of Ethics to include other violations which it reasonably suspects to have occurred, based on allegations in the original complaint. Any such supplementation expansion shall be in writing, and a copy shall be sent by registered or certified mail, or by personal service by a State Marshal sheriff, constable or indifferent pPerson to the respondent-Respondent(s) and Complainant(s) complainant within seven days of such amendment.

(3) Investigation of Probable Cause, Confidentiality of Initial Proceedings. The Investigating Panel members shall investigate the complaint and any expansion thereto. For this purpose, hearings and meetings may be held to determine whether or not there is Probable Cause to believe that the respondent has violated the Code of Ethics. Any investigation and Probable Cause hearing, if held, shall be confidential and shall not be open to the public unless the Respondent requests that such investigation and hearing be open. Request by the Respondent for a public hearing shall waive the confidentiality requirement of the investigation and hearing. Pending the outcome of the Probable Cause hearing, no member of the Board of Ethics or Investigating Panel shall disclose his or her knowledge of the Probable Cause investigation to a third party. By filing a complaint with the Board of Ethics, the Complainant shall be bound by the requirement of confidentiality. A violation of the requirement of confidentiality by the Complainant, whether direct or indirect, shall be grounds, at the discretion of the Board of Ethics, to dismiss the complaint and may be grounds to ban the Complainant from filing complaints in the future. The Respondent shall have the right to appear and be heard and to offer any information by way of answer or denial of the allegations. The Respondent may be represented by counsel of his or her choice in the Probable Cause hearings before the Investigating Panel. The Investigating Panel may, in its discretion, hear testimony or take written statements from the Complainant and any other witnesses it deems necessary to its investigation. The Investigating Panel may retain counsel or investigators to assist it in the Probable Cause hearing process.

C. Finding of Probable Cause, Written Report, Hearing Before

(1) Finding of Probable Cause before an ethics hearing board. A decision regarding pProbable eCause shall be made by the Investigating Panel investigating-panel within 60 days after the date that the Board of Ethics served notice of the formation of the Investigating Panel investigating-panel to the Respondent respondent and -Complainant complainant. A finding that pProbable eCause to believe that the Respondent respondent has violated the Code of Ethics exists shall require two concurring votes from the members of the Investigating Panel investigating-panel.

(2) Written Report of Investigating Panel; Public Hearing Before Hearing Board. If the Investigating Panel determines that there is pProbable eCause that the Respondent respondent has violated the Code of Ethics, it shall submit a written report to the Board of Ethics stating the basis for the finding of pProbable eCause. Upon receipt of the report of the Investigating Panel finding-probable-cause, the Board of Ethics shall appoint a Hearing Board , which shall initiate a public hearing process within 30 days, to determine whether the Respondent(s) respondent(s) committed a violation of the Code of Ethics. In any public hearing held to determine a violation of the Code of Ethics, the Investigating Panel members shall have the responsibility of gathering and presenting evidence to the Hearing Board-[KM9]

(3) Finding of No Probable Cause. If the Investigating Panel fails to determine that there is pProbable eCause that the Respondent has violated the Code of Ethics, the Investigating Panel shall dismiss the complaint for the Board of Ethics and shall report such dismissal to the Board of Ethics, and copy of the report of dismissal shall be sent by registered or certified mail or by personal service by a State Marshal, constable or indifferent pPerson to the Respondent and Complainant within seven days of its receipt by the Ethics Board.

1. Introduction:

The City of Norwalk Board of Ethics is an independent commission charged with administering and enforcing the City of Norwalk's Ethics Complaint Process. This Guide provides general information to the public and to the City of Norwalk's employees, contractors, and officials, both appointed and elected.

The Board of Ethics is authorized under Chapter 32 of the City of Norwalk Code of Ordinances to uphold the following:

- A. Public service is a trust, and the proper operation of the City of Norwalk requires that all City officers and employees, whether elected or appointed-, paid or unpaid, be impartial and responsible to the public. Public office and employment must not be used for unfair personal or financial advantage. The public needs and deserves to have confidence in the integrity of the municipal government of our City.
- B. Officers and employees of the City of Norwalk must refrain from personal, business, and financial activities that adversely affect the individual's fidelity and impartiality, having regard for the nature and scope of their official responsibilities.
- C. In recognition of the aforementioned principles, there is hereby established a Code of Ethics which shall apply for all City of Norwalk officers and employees.

This Guide provides general information only. The descriptions of the law and the code are not intended to be exhaustive. A complete copy of the Code of Ethics and the Citizen's Guide are available on the City's website at www.norwalkct.org. For additional information you may also go to the Connecticut Office of State Ethics at www.ct.gov/ethics.

2. Guidelines for Ethical Behavior

Key Aspects of Ethical Behavior for Employees and Officers

What is expected?

The proper operation of the City of Norwalk requires that all City officers and employees: elected, appointed; paid or unpaid, act in an impartial and responsible manner. Public office and employment must not be used for unfair personal or financial advantage. The public needs to be assured of the integrity of the municipal government of Norwalk.

Officers and employees of the City of Norwalk must refrain from personal, business and financial activities that adversely affect the individual's impartiality, within the scope of their official responsibilities.

As you read through this Guide, be aware that the Code of Ethics was enacted to prevent individuals from using their public position or authority for personal gain or benefit. The State of Connecticut and its agencies may also have their own ethics policies, which in some cases differ from what is to follow.

1) Conflicts of interest; influence or interference with duties

Officers and employees of the City of Norwalk should avoid engaging in any business or transaction or having a personal, immediate family or business interest, directly or indirectly, which is in conflict with or incompatible with the proper discharge of his or her official duties or that by creating a divided loyalty might influence or impair his or her independence of judgment and action in the performance of said duties. A conflict of interest exists whenever an officer or employee will more likely than not benefit, disproportionately from other citizens of the city, directly or indirectly, from a decision over which they have influence. ~~avoid engaging in any business or transaction and should refrain from having an interest, directly or indirectly, which is materially in conflict with or materially incompatible with the proper discharge of the individual's official duties.~~ If the individual has encountered a conflict, he or she is to disclose this in writing to the Norwalk City Clerk, and if necessary, to recuse himself or herself from taking action. If an individual is uncertain if he or she has a conflict, he or she should ask for an advisory opinion from the Board of Ethics.

An officer or employee of the City of Norwalk shall not deliberate or participate in a decision or action by the agency of which the individual is a member or is employed if he or she or any member of his or her immediate family has any interest that could be construed as benefiting due to the individual's participation.

While in employment of the City of Norwalk, officers and employees shall not grant special consideration, treatment or advantage to any person beyond that which is generally available to the public.

2) Gifts

An officer or employee of the City of Norwalk shall not personally solicit, nor accept any gift, form of service or item of a property value of $50150.00 or more. Not included are:

- o Gifts or social courtesies related to family relationships.
- o Established personal friendships which are not designed to influence judgment or actions.
- o Attendance at events of a charitable, public, governmental, informational or business nature where refreshments may be served and small souvenirs of the event may be distributed, not intended to influence judgment or behavior.
- o Political contributions received within applicable laws, rules and regulations.
- o Loans obtained according to prevailing commercial practices and rates.
- o Customary performance and merit awards or honorariums.
- o Awards, gifts, etc., given as an official employee recognition program.
- o Meals and refreshments not exceeding $50-150 in value and in aggregate over the period of year, not intended to influence judgment or actions.
- o Goods or services provided to the City.
- o—Meals and refreshments served in an individual's personal home.
- o Rebates, discounts obtained on the price of anything sold in the normal course of personal business.
- o Printed or recorded information, photographs and maps related to governmental functions/actions.
- o Certificates, plaques or ceremonial awards having a value of no more than $200 given to an employee as part of an official Employee Recognition/Incentive Program.
 - Gifts or social courtesies, given to celebrate major life events such as weddings, births, religious milestones or major holidays, given to the officer or employee, or to the officer's or employee's immediate family, from donors, who are: (a) other relatives that are not "immediate family" as defined in Code of Ethics Chapter 32, or (b) close personal friends. Gifts made with a monetary value in excess of $500.00 must be disclosed in writing within ninety (90) days to the Board of Ethics. In the event of a complaint of a violation of this Section, the officer or employee shall have the burden of proving that the gift is a bona fide gift or social courtesy customarily made for the occasion. Political contributions should not be construed to be a gift and are not subject to this section.

3) Employment

a) Future Employment:

Officers and employees of the City of Norwalk shall not solicit future employment with anyone who has a substantial matter pending before the agency for which the officer or employee served or is serving. A matter is "substantial" if it involves a financial value of $1,000 or more or involves a question of significant public policy for the City.

b) Subsequent Employment:

There is a minimum of one year before a terminated employee or officer shall be able to work or assist any individual, person, agency, other than the City, by representing that individual, person or agency in front of his or her former department for monetary or valuable compensation.

There are also requirements to prevent the appearance of nepotism that restrict the hiring of family members within the same department for which an officer or employee works or recently worked.

Refer to the Code of Ethics for more detailed information.

4) Procurement

The City of Norwalk has adopted a set of Procurement Guidelines that govern the purchase of goods and services by the City. Vendors and contractors who wish to do business must comply with the Procurement Guidelines, which are available on the Norwalk Purchasing Department's website at <http://www.bid.ci.norwalk.ct.us>.

5) Use of Public Property

The following excerpt from Section 32-6 of the Code of Ethics addresses the prohibited use of City property and facilities:

No officer or employee shall use or authorize others to use City-owned property, including vehicles and facilities, for any purpose other than the conduct of City business, except as follows:

- A. For purposes and on terms generally available to members of the public or other officers and employees of the City generally;
- B. In accordance with such officer's or employee's work or employment with the City in which the use of such property by such officer or employee is an element of his or her compensation, term or employment, or performance for the City;
- C. A minor or incidental use for personal purposes that is without cost to the City or a minor or non-incidental use for personal purposes that is authorized by the City; or
- D. For charitable, professional or volunteer work, provided the use is authorized by the City.

6) Use of influence and information

Section 32-7 of the Code of Ethics addresses the sharing of information or use of influence of and by officers, employees or agencies in the handling of any matter or transaction of any business in which an involved individual would have special interest or could stand to gain or lose based on knowledge of said information that is not commonly shared with the general public. No employee or officer shall disclose confidential City of Norwalk information, other than in accordance with established City procedures or with appropriate authorization from the City. Further detail is available in the Code of Ethics.
