NEW BUSINESS

Discussion with AD HOC Committee on Affordable Housing

Atty. Suib said that she had checked the City website for the names of the Committee members, but the page did not list any. No one from the City administration came to the meeting to speak about the issue. Atty. Suib said that this item should be tabled until the next meeting. This was agreeable to all.

Atty. Suib then informed the Commissioners that Ms. Erin Kemple, who was the Executive Director of the Connecticut Fair Housing Center for many years, left the organization in September and has been hired by the National Fair Housing to open an office in Memphis. Atty. Suib said that the Connecticut Fair Housing Center meetings were basically discontinued during COVID.

ADJOURNMENT
