PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD

There was no one from the public present.

OLD BUSINESS

A. 35-65 Housing Panel / Mayor's Advisory Committee on Housing

Atty. Suib said that the Housing Panel was meeting on Wednesday morning. The members have homework assignments. The Committee members will be meeting until October 19th and a report on the Committee's findings will be filed with the Mayor shortly thereafter.

The discussion moved to the fact that there are certain low income units in a development have deed restrictions that expire after a set number of years. Discussion followed.

B. Report to Mayor Re: City Depts Fair Housing Work

Atty. Suib said that the Mayor had asked for a report from each department as to what they have done to further Fair Housing in the City. Atty. Suib is expected to compile the reports and present it to the Mayor. She said that only one report had come in and she had incorporated that information into a report and submitted it to the Mayor, as requested.

NEW BUSINESS

A. CT Housing Coalition Annual Conference - Thurs. 9/22

Atty. Suib said that she and Ms. Franklin will be attending the conference. There will be a number of seminars including one on zoning. It will be held in Hartford at the Connecticut Convention Center in Hartford.

B. NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet - Friday 9/23

Atty. Suib reminded everyone about the upcoming Freedom Fund Banquet.

C. Landlord Training with NHA - Wed. 10/19

Ms. Suib will be holding a Landlord Training Session in the Community Room at City Hall at 6:30 p.m.

D. FHO's Annual Fair Housing Report: Schedule
